TO

The Deputy Commissioner,
Bangalore.

Sir,

Essential Services.

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No.C.D.1-25/42-43 dated 7th January 1943 on the above subject, I am directed to state that the Essential Services Act applies to all employment under the Government (Vide Section 3 of Act XXIII of 1942) and no separate notification is necessary therefore. Employment in the Bangalore Transport Company limited, has already been notified to be employment to which the above Act applies. (Vide Notification 343(W) dated 22nd July 1942, copy sent to you with this office memo No.344-47/W. dated 22nd July 1942).

I am to enclose for your information and guidance extracts from Government of India letter to Provincial Governments explaining the scope of the Act. As regards the application of the Act it will be observed from the above that a Notification issued at the right time might have a steadying effect and prevent the development of actual panic.

I am to request you kindly to examine the matter further and submit definite proposals in consultation with the authorities concerned regarding the services (other than Government) which it may be expedient to notify. In this connection the need for notifying the Municipal and Sanitary Services (other than Government) employment in the Bank of Mysore and in Factories engaged in war material production may also be examined.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

g
For Chief Secretary to Government.
